MAY DAY FETE TO BE GRAND AFFAIR

The grand May-Day Fete which will be held next Saturday at the beautiful grounds of Governor Cleghorn at Alnahau, Waikiki, promises to be the greatest event of the kind ever held in this country. Fully 5000 people are expected to be present and there will be a scene of animation amid the beautiful gardens of Alinahau such as has never been witnessed in Honolulu.
The grand fete has been arranged by the ladies of the Kihohana Art League and they have prepared an entertainment menu that will prove a treat to everyone. Tickets for the fete can be purchased at the various bookstores about the city and at the Bergstrom Music Co. Admission to the grounds: adults 50c, children 25c.
The fete will be held on Saturday, April 30th, as May 1st comes on Sunday.

PRAYS FOR DIVORCE

For non-support during a period of over eighteen years, Marie Manofoa of Honolulu has brought a libel against her husband, Iola Manaofoa, who has lived on Hawaii for the past two years.

The woman asks that the bonds of matrimony between herself and her husband be dissolved, stating that although he is perfectly able to support her, he has not done so since September 20, 1891.
At that time he deserted her and has since refused to return or to allow her to go to him. There were no children by the marriage, which was performed in 1887.

A CONSIGNMENT of lumber from Fort Bragg consigned to the local agency of Allen & Robinson is on the way to the port by the American schooner S. C. Allen. The vessel is now off fifteen days from the lumber port.

$10,000 SUIT AGAIN BEFORE THE COURT

For the second time the case of Ed.
Campbell against Hackfeld and Company asking the company for $10,000 damages is before the courts, the case having been opened this morning.
Campbell was a stevedore employed by the defendant's company and it was while working upon a vessel consigned to them that he was injured during the discharge of a quantity of coal. The accident occurred in July, 1902. The case was first tried before Judge Whitney, then went to the supreme court and was remanded to the circuit court by that tribunal for a new trial.

Ten o'clock was the hour set for the opening of the case but some time was occupied in the choosing of a jury, which was finally accomplished.

The men drawn to sit in the case were: Abel Carreno, Alonzo J. Wilson, A. C. Souza, William H. Campbell, Ray B. Rietoso, George E. McCorrigan, C. F. White, James B. Mossman, Adolph B. Angus, Andrew L. Bushnell, Robert W. Podmore and William Wolters.

THE UNITED STATES gunboat Whelming which has been lying out of commission at the Puget Sound Navy Yard for six years, but which was put in complete repair last year, was placed in commission on March 25 and ordered to leave for the Atlantic Coast, where it is believed she will be used for Naval Militia practice.
The Whelming was built in 1896.

GOODS PLENTIFUL; MONEY SCARCE

"Commercial conditions in the Eastern markets make it very favorable for Honolulu buyers," says L.
B. Kerr, the Alakea street merchant, who returned yesterday from a trip to New York and manufacturing centers.

"Goods are plentiful and money is scarce in the Eastern States. Cash or part cash purchasers are offered goods at amazingly low figures compared with that of a year or so ago.
San Francisco merchants are still suffering from the high rents that were caused by the earthquake. So high are rents that the selling prices of retail merchants in San Francisco and Honolulu are equalized, in spite of the difference in freight rates. It is true that goods can be bought and sold cheaper in Honolulu today than in San Francisco, on this account."

While away Mr. Kerr took advantage of the unusual low prices in the manufacturing centers and bought immense stocks for all the departments in his store. These goods will begin to arrive here in ten days or two weeks, and the proof of the low prices at which high-class goods can be bought in the Eastern markets will be shown by the prices at which these goods will be sold here by L.
B. Kerr & Co.

WATERFRONT NOTES

NEW YORK cargo leaving the Atlantic coast port on March 8th is due to arrive here on Thursday by the American-Hawaiian freighter Alaskan. The vessel will go to the railway wharf to discharge and then proceed to several island ports to take on a shipment of sugar for the United States by the way of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

THE MAJORITY of the labor in coaling the Pacific Mail liner China yesterday was performed by Russians.
The presence of quite a number of steamers at the port has required nearly all of the available Hawaiian and Portuguese laborers. Russians have been used by the local stev-erders to fill out their gangs.

THE BRITISH steamer Rokeby, now forty-nine days out from Norfolk, Va., with a large shipment of coal for the United States navy department, is evidently making a rather slow voyage around the Horn to the Hawaiian islands. The freighter is reported to have passed Correll, Chili, enroute to his port, on last Friday.

NINETEEN DAYS was the time taken by the American schooner M.
E. Foster in covering the distance between Honolulu and Grays Harbor.
The Foster arrived at the North Pacific coast port on Monday.

THE A-H. freighter Arizonan, with New York cargo by the steamer Lucenback of March 20th, is due to sail from Puget Sound ports on April 26.
The vessel should arrive here on about May 7.

LURLINE STEERING GEAR DAMAGED

A confirmation of a cable received some days ago from the Coast, to the effect that the Matson Navigation liner Lurline suffered damage to her steering gear, has been received by Castle & Cooke this morning.

The local agents state that advice have been received that the repairs to the steering gear and rudder damaged on the S. S. Lurline while on her last trip from Honolulu to San Francisco will not be completed in time to permit of the vessel sailing from San Francisco until May 2.

ANDERSON GRACE IS PUZZLING POLICE

In many places. The deputy sheriffs have also been notified of the escape, and instructed to look out for the man. However, Grace could easily be away in the hills, and as long as he can get food it would be hard to find him.

A report was turned in from Walmanalo this morning that a Portuguese had seen a negro resembling Grace over that way, but so far there has been no confirmation of the report. Chief McDuffie and his men were out till 3 o'clock this morning, but no signs of Grace were seen.

Grace's wife was arrested yesterday on a Federal warrant charging her with murder. It is claimed that she was an accomplice of her husband in the murder of Watchman Mahu at Watertown, and that she tried to prove an alibi for him.

The woman has been kept at the police station for some days now in order that she be immune from any attack by her husband. It was thought that Grace might try to kill his wife, as she is suing him for divorce. Mrs. Grace is now in the Oahu prison, and the arrest of her husband may follow now that she is not allowed to visit her home daily.

CHINESE IN SCRAP

Po Sing struck Ching Tung over the head with the limb of a tree four feet long and two inches in diameter at Kailua raising a large bruise on the head of the latter and he was hailed before Judge Cooper this morning to tell all about it.

It appeared from the evidence introduced that Po was a laborer for Waterhouse and Company at Kailua and Ching climbed over a fence to remove an obstruction from an irrigation ditch in the property he was guarding. Ching had some growing things of his own which he wished to receive the benefit of the water in the ditch which was being held up by the obstruction in neighboring property, and so without asking leave went in and attempted to get busy.

Po was on the job and reacted the mode of approach of the other, and without even giving warning picked up the tree limb and hit his countryman over the back of the head.

The case will be concluded this afternoon.
